Bicycle Borne Bandits Blamed

Police may at last have a clue to the many thefts of chrome automobile ornaments on Hickory and Greenwood avenues during recent weeks.

J. H. Fuenzalida, 1512 Hickory avenue, told police his wife saw two bicycle borne boys dismount in front of his home Monday night, quickly remove a radiator ornament from his car and swing back onto their bikes and wheel away before she could sound an alarm.

DOAK PLANT TO MAKE JET FIGHTER WINGS

Construction of wing panels for North American's lightening-fast F-86 Sabre will start in the recently leased Doak Aircraft Factory building about May 1, North American officials stated this week.

According to J. S. Smithson, vice president and factory manager for North American, construction crews will start early in April to arrange the facility for transfer of a portion of the company's F-86 Jet Sabre wing production from the Los Angeles plant.

Smithson said that approximately 125 persons, all now employed at North American, will be employed at the plant at 2321 Abalone avenue.

Stressing the fact that North American Aviation is moving work now being done in its Los Angeles plant to the Torrance facility and not starting a new operation, Smithson explained that employees now performing this work also will be transferred to the new location.

"Under the circumstances," Smithson said, "we do not anticipate any need to hire additional employees for the Torrance operation in the near future. If we should later find it necessary to hire new employees, every consideration will be given present Doak employees."

Transfer of this work to the Torrance plant is being made to meet the temporary need for additional space at the company's Los Angeles plant. North American Aviation has leased the Doak facility for two years, with option to renew the lease after that time.

There Is No Substitute For Experience

28 years as CITY CLERK devoted to the interests of the City of Torrance

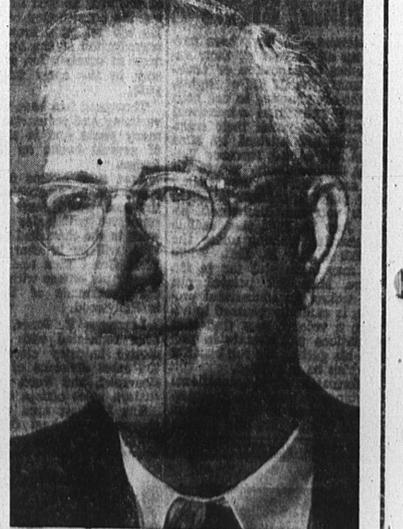

The record speaks for itself.

RE-ELECT ALBERT H. BARTLETT

City Clerk

at the Election

APRIL 11, 1950

No government is more intimate with the daily lives of the citizens than the local municipality, and a strong local government affords the protection of its inhabitants. Whatever the form of local government, one of the most important officers is its Clerk, whose problems are many and his duties various. The Clerk's office can be truly called the "Hub" of local government. It is the Clerk who is the contact between the citizens and the government. He gives advice on many subjects, not only relating to the government, but by his contact with the public, the people for a great part place confidence in him as the man who can answer most questions, accurately and honestly.

During my long term as City Clerk of Torrance I have kept abreast with its growth and development, not only as to the requirements of its citizens, but to the many laws and statutes governing municipalities.

Therefore, believing my experience qualifies me to seek re-election, I respectfully ask the support of the citizens at the April 11, 1950, Election.

Yours for Good Government,
ALBERT H. BARTLETT
